RIGHT TO CHALLENGE THE DECISION IN THE HIGH COURT

These notes are provided for guidance and only relate to statutory challenges under the legislation specified.

If you require further advice on making a High Court challenge, or making an application for Judicial Review, you should seek legal advice. Further information can be obtained from the Administrative Court at Cardiff Civil Justice Centre, 2 Park Street, Cardiff CF10 1ET (029 20376400).

Section 288 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 Procedures

Decisions and orders covered by this section may be challenged by making an application to the High Court under section 288 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (TCPA). Permission of the High Court is required.

Any person aggrieved by the decision or order may question the validity of the decision or order on the grounds that it is not within the powers of the TCPA or that any of the relevant requirements have not been complied with in relation to the decision or order. An application for permission under this section must be made before the end of the period of 6 weeks beginning with the day after the date on which the order is made, confirmed or takes effect or the date of the decision (depending on the order or decision to be challenged).

Section 289 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 Procedures

To challenge a decision under section 289 of the TCPA, permission must first be obtained from the Court. Application for permission must be made within 28 days after the date on which notice of the decision was given to the applicant, unless the Court extends this period.

Right to Inspect Documents

Where an inquiry or hearing has been held, any person who is entitled to be notified of the decision has a statutory right to view any documents listed in the appendix to the Inspector's report.

If you are such a person you should contact the Planning Directorate at the Welsh Government within 6 weeks of the date of decision, quoting the reference number on the decision letter and stating the day and time - during normal office hours - when you wish to visit. At least 3 days notice should be given.
